

contents

ON THE COVER

Nearly identical monuments less than 2 feet apart mark a USGS bench mark and a GLO township corner.

IMAGE COURTESY OF BONI EDWARDS

features

10 When Bench Marks & Section Corners Collide

Confusion was caused when many USGS surveyors doing leveling work placed bench marks 'near' township corners.

JERRY PENRY, PS

14 Forks of the Road to the Wilderness— The Indiana Buffalo Traces

While surveying, the author detects evidence of ancient animal pathways, some of which are used by humans to this day.

DAVID J. RUCKMAN, PS

20 The Initial Point of the 5th Principal Meridian

A celebration this year marks the 200th anniversary of the IP that is the basis for more land in this country than any other IP.

DR. RICHARD L. ELGIN, PS, PE

38 Vision to Design— Completing the Lake Wobegon Trail

Named after the fictional lake of Prairie Home Companion fame, this trail has benefitted from technology.

MATT PIKE

42 Recent Activities at the National Geodetic Survey—Part 4 of 4

In this installment, several aspects of what NGS is doing to benefit surveyors and society are discussed.

DR. DRU SMITH, DOUG GRAHAM, KENDALL FANCHER, ERIKA LITTLE, CHRISTINE GALLAGHER, GRETCHEN IMAHORI, AND ANDRIA BILICH

54 A Technique for Precision Point Setting

Instructions for setting a tribrach over an unknown—but previously calculated—point with maximum precision.

TERRANCE MISH, PS

AmeriSurv To Go!

Get the most from this magazine on your tablet or laptop.

departments

6 Angle Points: A Question of Ethics

Young surveyors are eager to learn about morality and ethics from older experienced surveyors.

MICHAEL J. PALLAMARY, PS

8 Vantage Point: Public Benefit

Ongoing local controversies provide a wealth of opportunities to second guess the governing bodies.

WENDY LATHROP, PS, CFM

34 Product Review: Traverse PC— To Think Like a Surveyor

The software is particularly adept at dealing with GLO information and the BLM's GCDB coordinates.

TONY CAVELL, PS, CFEDS

47 HP35s Calculator, a Field Surveyor's Companion: Part 7—Adjustment

Compass Rule can be an aid in recovery of evidence when a consistent difference is noted between plat and observed.

JASON E. FOOSE, PS

in this issue

4 Guest Editorial:
We Have Met the Enemy...
Michael J. Pallamary, PS

49 FeedBack

50 MarketPlace