

contents

ON THE COVER

In the first of a 12-part series, we join the venerable purpose-built barge Seelooghe as it takes its last voyage on the rivers of Alaska.

features

12 The Final Voyage

A 2,500 mile, 5 month long river trip would be an odyssey of epic proportions for an aging boat and its crews.

ERIC STAHLKE, PS

20 Scanning a Building in Motion

DAVIS Construction uses laser scanning to smooth out record-breaking building move in Washington, D.C.

ANGUS STOCKING, PS

34 Staking a Claim to the Future

Western New York firm finds conventional survey is a gateway to providing additional expertise.

LARRY TROJAK

40 When Two Worlds Collide

An iPad app gives remote Alaskan crews GPS support, offline mapping, custom forms and an open database.

MICHAEL GUNDLING

departments

4 Survey Locales

Another great Daryl Moistner shot from Alaska.

6 Angles Points: The Lost Art of Land Surveying

Adequate field notes, and knowing the difference between a tool and a technique.

MICHAEL J. PALLAMARY, PS.

8 Vantage Point: No Title

Cautionary tales against believing everything we read in a title report.

WENDY LATHROP, PS, CFM

10 The Curt Brown Chronicles: Engineers and Surveying

Excerpts from the Fourth National Surveying Teachers Conference in 1957.

COMPILED BY MICHAEL J. PALLAMARY, PS

46 HP35s Calculator, a Field Surveyor's Companion: Part 10— Distance Dependent Intersections

Exhaust every shred of physical evidence before using a direction/ distance intersection.

JASON E. FOOSE, PS

56 Reconnaissance: Lender's Certificates

Our ALTA expert provides examples of the ridiculous and the ludicrous.

GARY KENT, PS

in this issue

2 Editorial: Knowing What We Don't Know
Marc Cheves, PS

50 FeedBack

52 MarketPlace

AmeriSurv To Go!
Get the most from this magazine on your tablet or laptop.

