

Contents

On the Cover

8

After a hard day's paddling, members of the North American Land Surveyors canoe team salute a community before landing.

44

56

Features

- 8 Voyage of the Koo Koo Sint & Paddle Song
A group of North American land surveyors embark on a canoe odyssey as part of the 2011 David Thompson Columbia Brigade.
By Denny and Delores DeMeyer
- 18 Rendezvous 2011: Altered Contours
The members of the Surveyors Historical Society travel to the birthplace of the PLSS to examine Indian mounds, canals, and have a great time.
By C. Barton Crattie, LS CFM
- 39 Conference Review: CGSIC and ION 2011
A recap of the 51st meeting of the Civil GPS Service Interface Committee and the ION conference shows that GPS is greater than the sum of its parts.
- 44 Data Mine: From Limestone Mine to National Archives Storage
A St. Louis area firm employs scanning to map and model a giant underground storage facility.
Jennifer M. Wolkiewicz and Dianna Graveman
- 56 A Colonial Surveyor in President Jefferson's Public Lands
A Connecticut surveyor tells why, even though he lives in metres and bounds territory, he wanted his CFedS license.
Don Poole, LS, CFedS

Departments

- 34 Vantage Point: A Homeowner's Setback
A nightmare with a building setback shows why hiring a surveyor is a good idea.
By Wendy Lathrop, LS, CFM
- 36 Footsteps: Finding the Courage to Say "No"
Saying 'No' may be one of the hardest professional decisions you will ever make.
By Landon Blake, LS

In This Issue

- 6 Editor's Corner
By Marc Cheves, LS
- 51 MarketPlace
- 53 Advertisers' Directory

>> Are You Receiving Our eNewsletter?
Subscribe @ www.amerisurv.com

